Now we've reached the end.

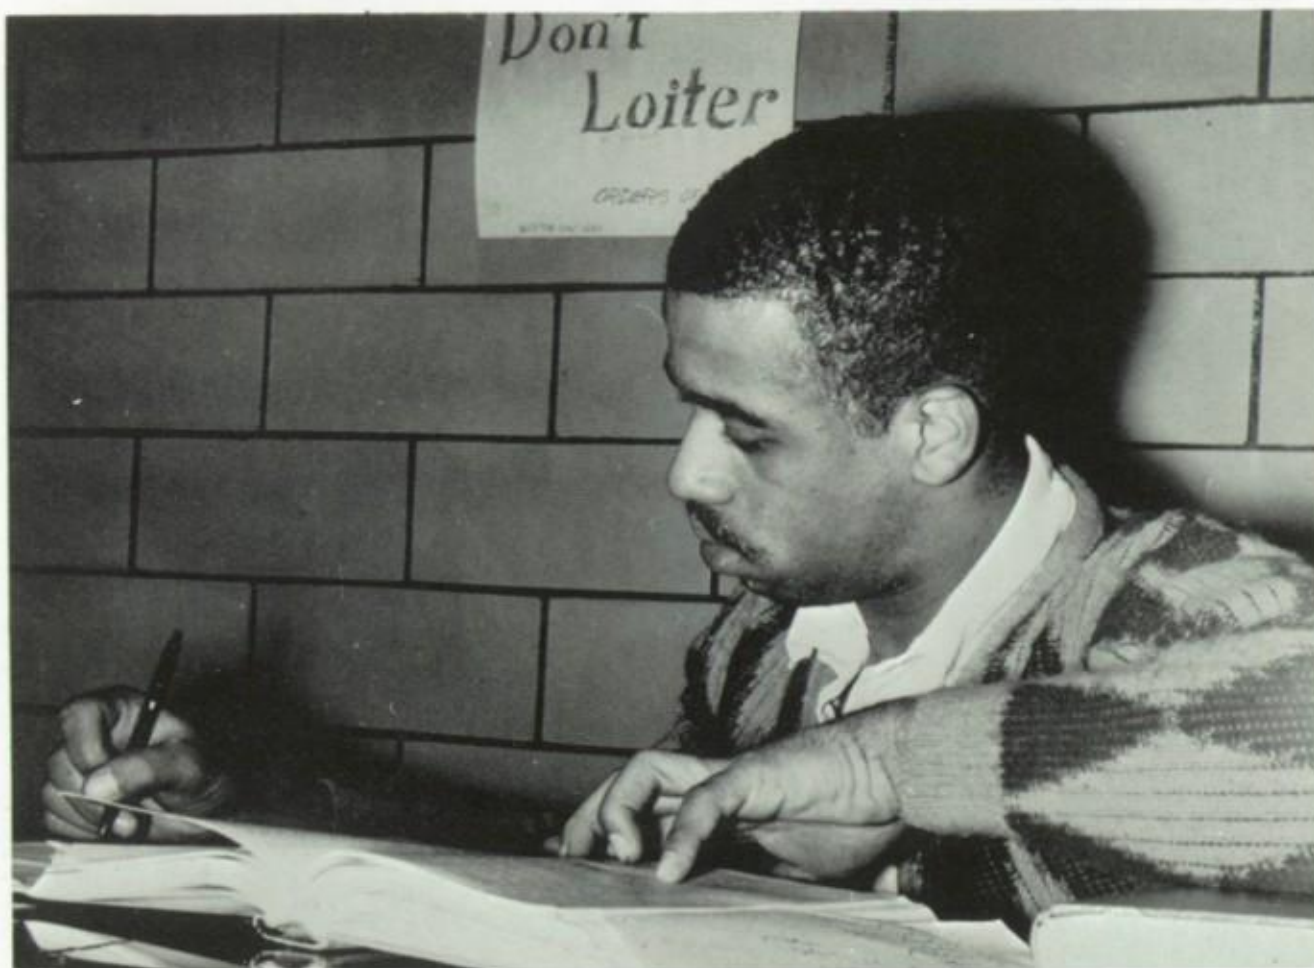

We had our joys . . .

Our sorrows . . .

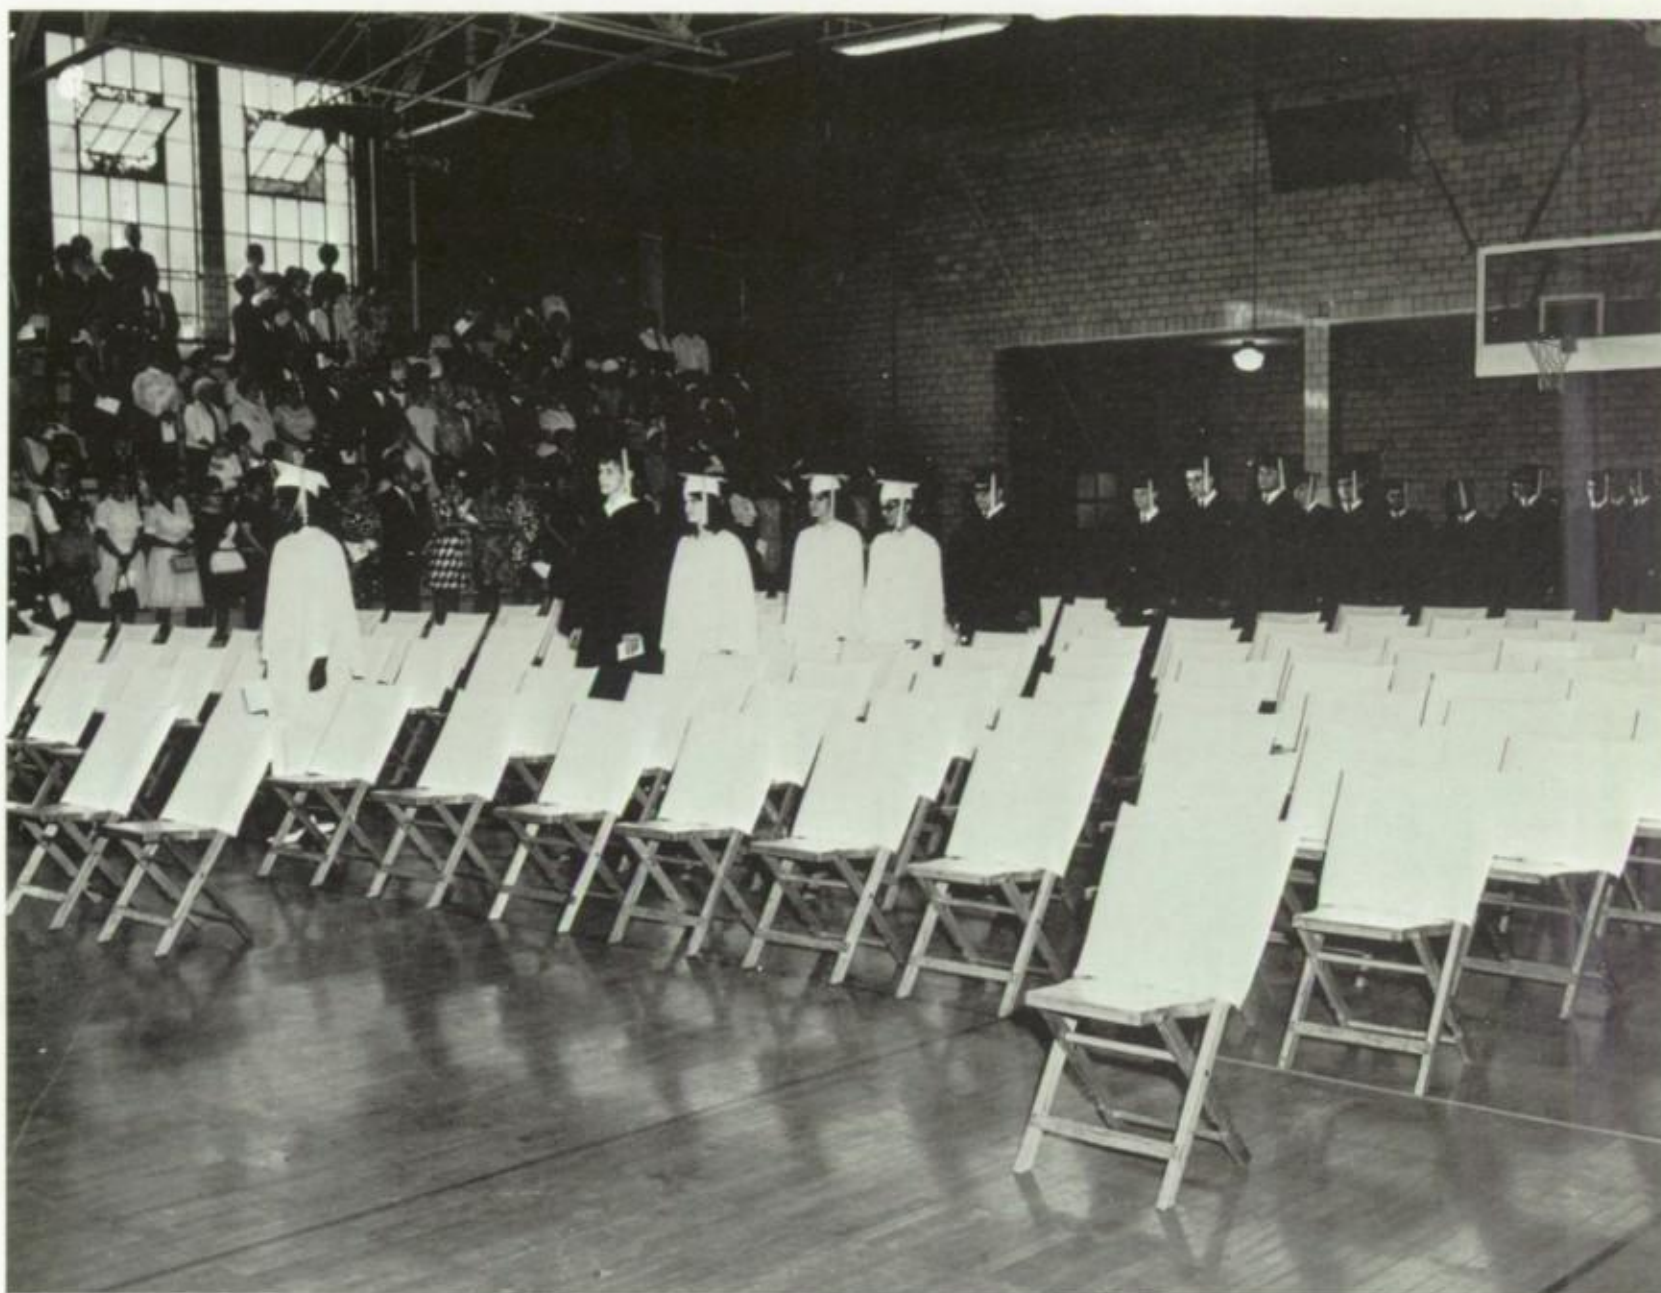

. . . our good times.

We've reached the
turning points of our lives.

And now we leave.

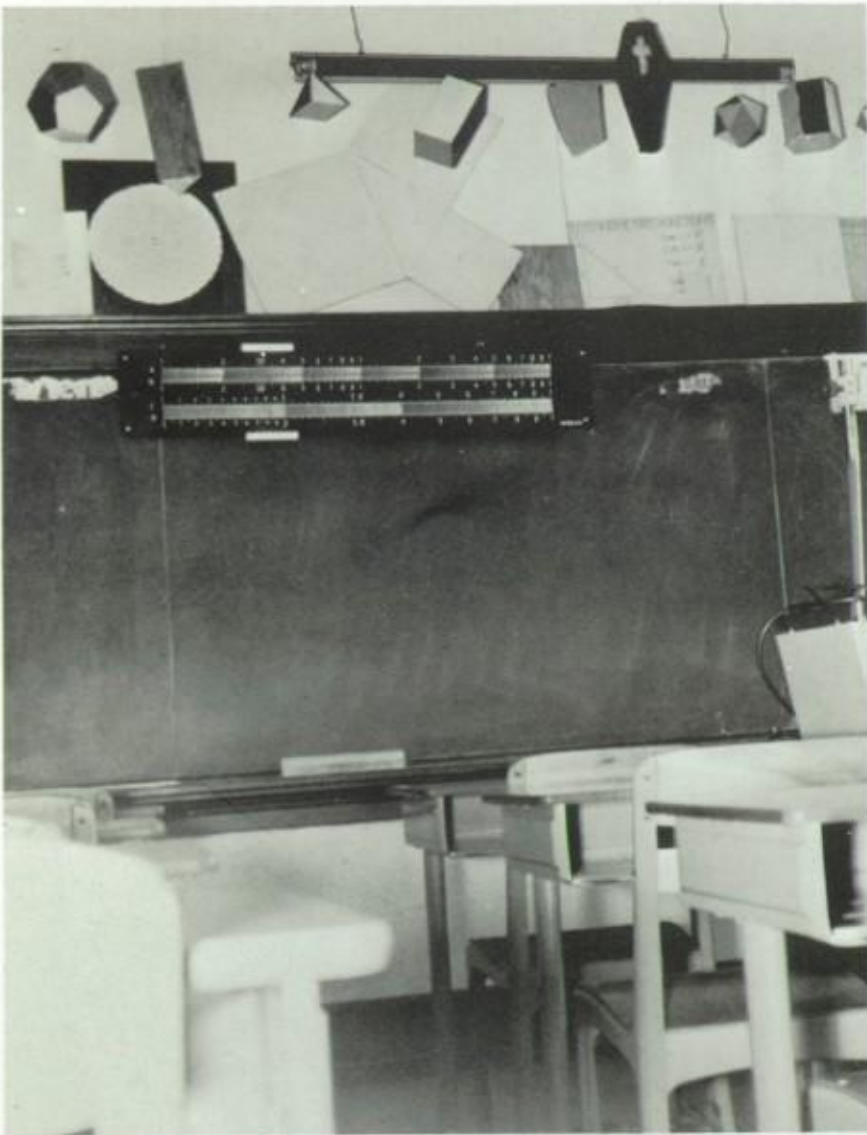

We leave
our favorite teachers
and our close friends.

Our classrooms . . .
and our memories.

We now leave in hopes of finding a life
comparable to these high school
days.

And we leave
our legacy to time.

— The Class History

To Sir;

With Love

There is a certainty in this man
Who is unafraid to share himself with others,
Unafraid to become involved in the
Candid life of a student.

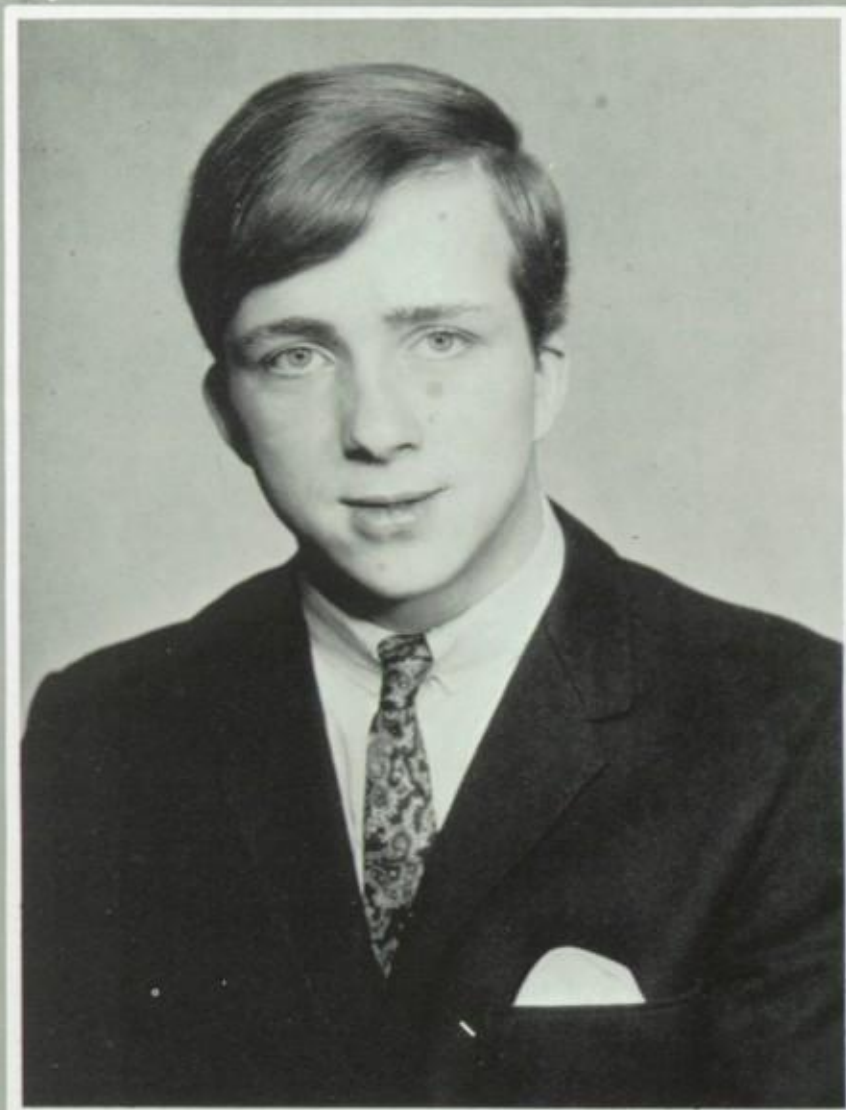

He engages with vitality
His learning and teaching life.
We admire the way he approaches its problems,
And he is our example.

To Mr. Joseph Caparossi, we dedicate this book
In an attempt to return some of the respect
That he gave to us.

In Memory of Terry Lee Cross.

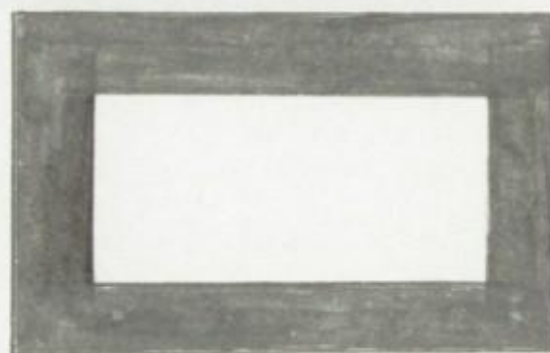

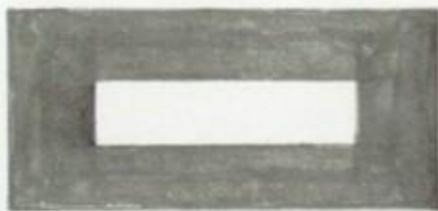

Terry Cross was to have graduated this past June. In his short life-time he lived as any other teen-ager - All the joys, sorrows, fears that go to make a seventeen-year old boy were his. Easy going, kind of quiet, he was a friend to anyone who wanted one. His only wish was to be liked. This book is dedicated to that wish.

"We loved him a lot; but God loved him more."

FACULTY

Administrators

MR. DONALD LOWE
SUPERINTENDENT OF WELLSVILLE SCHOOLS

Mr. Don Lowe, serving in his first year as superintendent, has shown special interest in the Wellsville Public School system. His unfailing efforts towards the approval of the school levy will be long remembered by many. This year, he received the "Man of the Year" award. Mr. Lowe has won the admiration of all who know him.

Thanks!

We salute the selfless dedication of these citizens who devoted many hours to our education.

MR. WILLIAM MENOUGH
WELLSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Mr. William Menough, principal of Wellsville High School, is highly regarded by the students. His manner is quiet, but his methods in dealing with students are effective. His continuous efforts will be long-remembered by us all.

MR. CHARLES WILFING
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mr. Charles Wilfing, assistant principal and adviser of our Tiger Tales Yearbook, has shown fairness and a desire to help us. His sincerity and patience should be recognized and admired by everyone in the community. His close contact with the students will never be forgotten.

For the common things of everyday
 God gave men speech in the common way,
 For the deeper things men think and feel
 God gave the poet words to reveal,
 For the heights and depths no words can reach

God gave men music--the soul's own speech.

Our hearts have created a world made

Varsity Basketball

Wellsville's new basketball coach this year is Mr. Robert Dawson. He came here from East Liverpool where he was extremely successful with the reserve team. Coach Dawson is a strict disciplinarian who demands an all-out effort at all times. He inherits a team which averages about 5'11".

With this conspicuous lack of height the Tigers will have to rely upon an air-tight defense and continuous hustle. There are five lettermen return-ball in the last 16 seconds of play while trailing by a point. The visiting mentors took a shot with five seconds remaining but Paul Hood rebounded the aerial that missed its mark.

Tom McLain paced the way for the Tigers with fifteen points and an outstanding twenty rebounds. Jerry Wyse added fourteen and Hood hooped ten. Dan Sedor, who had a bad night all around, added eight. Mark Powell played a better game than his two points show, as he held Vanlier to eleven and also added numerous assists. Howard Leak paced Midland with 23 points.

Class Officers — '69

Class Sponsor: MR. WESTCOTT, President - RICH WHITEMAN, Sec. -
CHERYL CABLE, Vice Pres. - ANN CLARK, Treas. - SONNIE RICHARDS.

The Class of '69, under the worthy guidance of their class sponsor, Mr. Robert Wescott, and their active officers have had an unforgettable year. They became Juniors officially, when they received their class rings in late September. They proudly presented their Junior Class Play, "The Family Man," starring Eric Bush and Dianne Brown, on Feb. 8 and 9. As a yearly project, they sold Cashew Peanut Crunch and worked eagerly in the concession stand to earn money for the Junior-Senior Prom. It was held at Virginia Gardens with "Standing In the Shadows of Love" as the theme. Prom night was a thrilling climax to top off a memorable year.

JR. PLAY

The Junior Class presented as its play "The Family Man", a modern, family comedy featuring Diane Brown and Eric Bush in the leading roles of Bill and Ellen Cahill. It all began when Bill broke his leg sliding into third base while playing with his children. Faced with a long convalescence, Ellen returned to work while Bill looked after the house.

Things became even more complicated when it was discovered that he, using his wife's name, had won the Homemaker of the Year Award.

And now to begin . . .

The 1968 Senior Class presented, "Tall Story", a three-act comedy. It had many demanding roles and nine challenging scene changes, under the direction of Mr. Caporossi. There were over fifty in the cast, while approximately forty students worked behind the scenes.

The plot unfolds around Dave Long, a basketball player who has everything going for him: intelligence, athletic prowess, and good looks. He falls for Penny Pringle, a cheerleader who disrupts his whole life.

Dave's dilemma is taken advantage of by professional gamblers who bribe him to "throw the game" and he attempts to "save face" by failing two exams. With the star player "ineligible", the whole school is in a stew, especially Chuck Sines, the basketball coach.

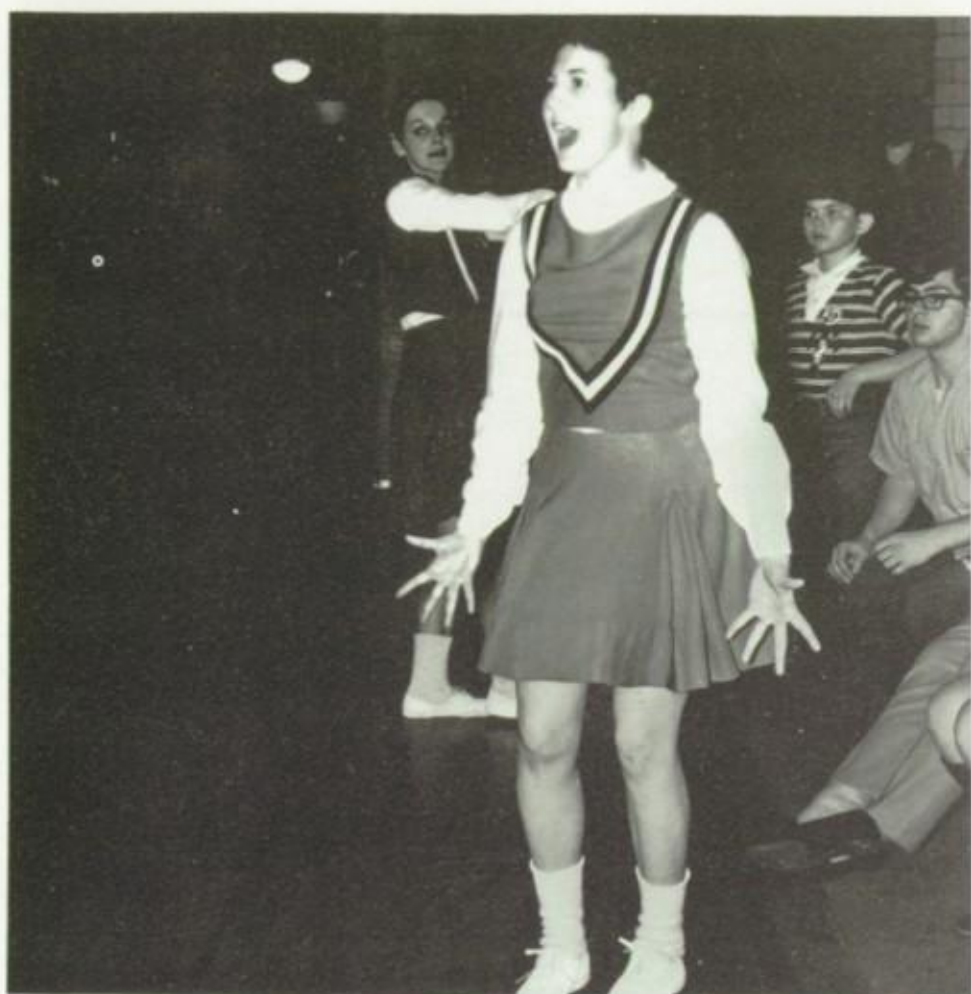

The coach begins a campaign against the "unnecessary academic branch". It also puts the dean of girls, Judy Kemeny, president of Custer College, John Porter and district of attorney, Steve Ferrall, into a quandary.

They meet a formidable foe in a conservative unalterable professor, Dick Cheatwood, who believes he must stand up, even if alone, for "academic integrity." The professor gains some support from his wife, Becky Paisley, and from another professor, Sharon DeLauder. In a flurry of personalities and principles and an unforgettable make-up exam, plus the appearance of two detectives, Bob Palmer and Dianne Sell, many humorous moments are found. Added attractions were Mike Dickey, Connie Henry and Sherry Ferrence.

We would like to thank Mr. Caporossi for his devotion and the tireless efforts of Buster Murphy, Jeff Leughmyer, Jim McPeak and Jan Maylone.

If ere I could . . .

But read thy thoughts.

THE CLASS OF 1968

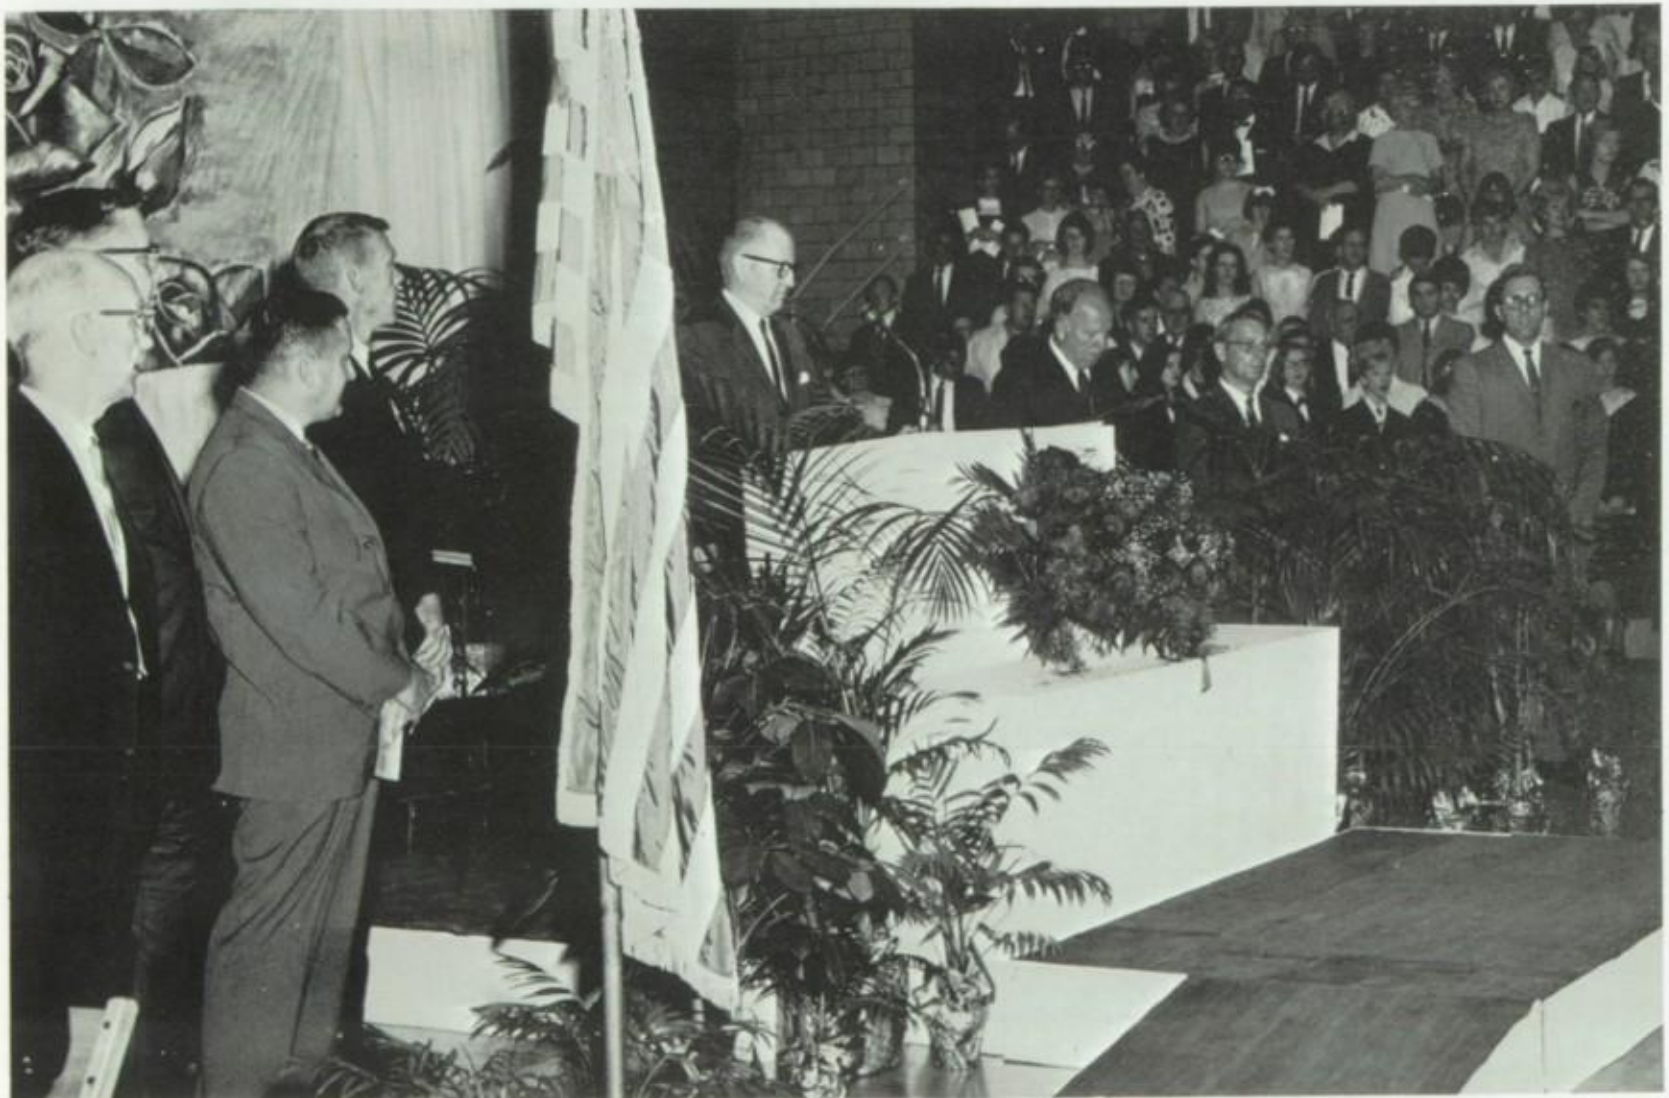

OUR GUESTS

93rd Commencement

"Tomorrow is Here," Dr. Perry Gresham, president of Bethany College, told the 1968 graduating class of '68, June 3rd, 1968. Mr. Menough introduced the class and William Ferrall, school board president, and Charles Glass, board vice president presented diplomas.

An innovation in the ceremony was the simultaneous changing of the tassels, led by Eddie (Buster) Murphy. Charles Wilfing introduced and presented trophies to the four honor students. The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. William Harper.

Mr. Menough, Mr. Wilfing, Mr. Ferrall, Mr. Lowe, Rev. Harper, Dr. Gresham, Mr. Glass, Mr. Caporossi.
